

JUMPING CLINIC

At Wimbish Hall, Radwinter

With NAT DIXON

Saturday 20th March 10.30 – 3.30

Nat competes in British Eventing . She has competed at Burghley and Badminton and was shortlisted for the Sydney Olympic Games and European Championships. She has produced several competition horses including international show jumper Valhalla and international eventers The Buster and Willy's Knight. Nat instructs regularly at several other Riding Clubs and Pony Clubs in the district.

Venue: Wimbish Hall, Wimbish (CB10 2XG). The clinic will be on a 30 x 50 metres rubber and sand arena. Directions: From Saffron Walden on B1053 turn right to Wimbish (Maple Lane). Off this road take the right turn signed 'Wimbish Church' just past some red brick cottages on your right hand side.

This clinic costs £13 per rider and the arena costs are part subsidised by the Riding Club (£17.00 for non-members). Sessions are 1 hour long, with 4 riders per session, (or 45 mins with 3 riders). Sessions cater from beginners to advanced groups.

Booking forms and cheques must arrive by the Wednesday before. Full refunds will be given up to this date; refunds after this date will only be made if your place is filled.

Please send form to: Alice Olley, HighView, Cole End Lane, Swards End, Saffron Walden, Essex CB10 2LQ and enclose cheque made payable to 'SWDRC'. Times will be e-mailed the Wednesday prior to the clinic or txt 07711 332152

Note: please help set out or pack away the jumps when needed & leave venue tidy. Thank you.
