

JUMPING CLUB NIGHTS

At Brook Farm, Radwinter
With Nick Turner FBHS

Wed 13th January, Tues 23rd Feb and Wed 24th March 2010

Nick is an accredited British Eventing and British Dressage trainer and a Fellow of the British Horse Society. He has competed at major 3 day events such as Badminton, Bramham, Blenheim & Burghley, often on horses that he has trained himself from Novice level. Nick is part of the BE Coaching Development Programme initiated by the BEF and a Practitioner of Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) in Sport. He now dedicates most of his time to training and is currently the Brazilian Eventing Team Coach and is also a Senior International Selector for British Eventing.

Venue: Brook Farm Equestrian Ctr, Radwinter, CB10 2TH.

Jumping club nights with Nick cost £18.00 per rider, the arena costs are subsidised by the Riding Club (£24.00 for non-members). Sessions will begin in the afternoon (around 4pm) and run through the evening (to approx 9pm), sessions are 1 hour long, with 4 riders per session, (or 45 mins with 3 riders). Sessions cater from trotting poles/cross to advanced groups, give useful information below and please be as flexible as you can with what time you can do. Flatwork sessions can be arranged on request.

Booking forms and cheques must arrive by the Saturday before (Fri for Tues session). Full refunds will be given up to this date; refunds after this date will only be made if your place is filled. We always do our best to fill places but please let us know as soon as you realise you cannot do it. If you do not turn up without a good reason you may also be liable to pay your contribution of arena charges.

Send form to: Sue Stringer, 2 Bridge End, Newport, Essex, CB11 3TH and enclose cheque made payable to 'SWDRC'. Times will be e-mailed the Monday prior to the club night (Sunday if poss. for Tues session) or tel 01799 541428 the Mon before the club night between 7.30pm and 9.00pm

Note: please help set out or pack away the jumps when needed and keep premises tidy.
